JASG Chair Emeritus & Partner, Eversheds Sutherland

The Consulate General of Japan in Atlanta will present the 2023 Foreign Minister's Commendation to Mr. Charles Ganz at The Japan-America Society of Georgia's Bonenkai Holiday Gala. Mr. Ganz served as Chairman of the JASG for 2 years and devoted himself to promoting friendly relations between Japan and the United States, and also co-chaired JapanFest, the largest Japanese festival in the southeastern United States. Mr. Ganz is a member of Eversheds Sutherland (US)'s Corporate Practice Group, practices principally in the areas of mergers and acquisitions, corporate finance, and securities law. He also advises national and multinational manufacturing, service and technology companies and other clients as to general corporate matters, contracts (including sales and supply agreements), licenses, and leases. He has significant experience in complex national and international stock and asset purchase transactions, and with respect to sales, mergers, reorganizations, split-ups and dispositions, public offerings, private placements, leveraged and management buyouts, going private transactions, proxy contests and tender offers. His practice also includes institutional, commercial and asset-based lending and project finance transactions. In addition, he has significant experience with leveraged-leasing transactions.

Mio Maeda

Consul General of Japan

The Honorable Mio Maeda is our new Consul General of Japan in Atlanta, having started in November 2022. Previously, Consul General was the Deputy Head of Mission at the Japanese Embassy in Switzerland. He joined the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in 1990 and has additionally served at the Embassies in Afghanistan, Vietnam, and Italy. Consul General has served as a Chamberlain to His Majesty, the Emperor of Japan at the Imperial Household Agency and has also worked at the Cabinet Secretariat as a Counselor for the National Policy Unit.
